ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on Debtor's Objection to Order Bank of America Perfection of Service (Doc. 431, the "Objection to Order"). The Order Denying Debtor's Objection to Claim No. 12 (Doc. 416, the "Order") denied Debtor's Amended Objection to Claim No. 12 (Doc. 408, the "Objection to Claim"), filed against Bank of America ("Creditor"), for Debtor's failure to state a claim upon which relief could be granted.

The Objection to Order does not appear to seek any relief from the Court. Debtor states in the Objection to Order that she perfected service on Creditor. The Court did not deny the Objection to Claim due to lack of proper service. In fact, the Order acknowledged that the Objection to Claim was “timely filed and properly served.” Rather, the Court denied the Objection to Claim because it failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

For this reason, the Court finds that, to the extent Debtor seeks relief,

IT IS ORDERED that the Objection to Order is DENIED.
